Game Art and Design Program: Much more than the typical Video Game Design School

Game Art and Design Program Description

Westwood's Game Art and Design program is designed to provide students with the ability to apply core knowledge of art and animation techniques for employment in the game and interactive software industry. The curriculum emphasizes traditional artistry, 3D modeling, and animation. In addition, a combination of management and general education courses assists students in applying critical thinking, logic, communication, and problem solving skills in managing challenges that occur in a game development environment. Westwood's Game Art and Design Program focuses game art as well as game design. Westwood College helps prepare students for an entry-level position in the game art industry, and helps prime students to compete for these highly desired jobs with graduates from other video game school.

Notes:

Kristen to verify the availability of the Campus data – can we dynamically populate this content? If not, will need to simplify the presentation.

Kristen will also find out how hard Westwood wants to cross-sell campuses from Online site. May be that Online students are more motivated and Westwood wants to keep them on the Online path.

Side Bar:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://www.MyView.com>. The page features a navigation bar with links for About Westwood, Student Login, Contact Us, and Westwood Online. A large grey banner contains the text "Promo with text and imagery" and a "Call Us: 800 281 2978" button, along with "Request Info" and "Apply" buttons. Below the banner is a menu with categories: Why Westwood, Programs, Locations, Admissions, Financial Aid, and Student Services.

The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled "Westwood Locations", lists locations by state: Colorado (Denver North, Denver South), California (Anaheim, Inland Empire, South Bay, Los Angeles), Georgia (Atlanta Midtown, Atlanta, NorthLake), Illinois (DuPage, Chicago loop, O'Hare Airport, River Oaks), Texas (Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston South), and Virginia (Anandale, Arlington Beach). Each location name is underlined and has a red line pointing to a "Link: Location details - page type 3.1" label on the left.

The right column, titled "Find Programs available by location", features a dropdown menu currently set to "Denver South". Below the dropdown is a scrollable list of programs. The "Institute of Design" section includes Bachelor Degree Programs (Animation, Game Art & Design, Interior Design, Visual Communications, Web Design & Multimedia) and Associate Degree Programs (Graphic Design & Multimedia, Computer-Aided Design / Architectural Drafting). The "Institute of Technology" section includes Bachelor Degree Programs (Computer Network Management, Game Software Development, Information Systems Security). Red lines connect these program lists to "Link: Degree pages - page type 2.2" labels on the right.

At the bottom, a "Westwood Advantages" section contains two columns of placeholder text: "- Quisque quis neque sed velit tincidunt pellentesque.", "- Aliquam nonummy tincidunt nisi.", "- Cras egestas diam id lacus.", "- Aenean dictum erat a lacus.", and "- Quisque eu nulla eu pede rutrum suscipit."
